

There are two types of special provisions:

1. “M” designation: Indicates a project specific special provision that modifies an existing Standard Specification. The special provision may result in a new or modified bid item.
2. “S” designation: Indicates a project specific special provision that is new or entirely replaces an existing Standard Specification. The special provision may result in a new or modified bid item.